

WHAT A PASTOR SEES AND HEARS

ITEMS OF PERSONAL INTEREST TO CHURCH PEOPLE.

The Rev. Dr. William H. Roberts, professor of Latin at the Seminary, whose chair was recently abolished by the trustees, has been preaching in Philadelphia for two Sundays, and spent a few hours in New York on Monday. Dr. Roberts is not at all disconcerted by the action of the trustees, and is as happy and resolute regarding his future as though he were still the possessor of a chair in the seminary. As to the financial condition of Lane, the reason for his removal being lack of money, it is said on good authority that the institution will, within a few weeks, receive $6,000, 50 per cent of the amount obtained by subscription by Dr. Roberts since he has been a professor there.
